

Becoming
Biblically
Literate

Relearning to Read the Bible

John 5:39-40 & Hebrews 4:12-13

02.26.2023

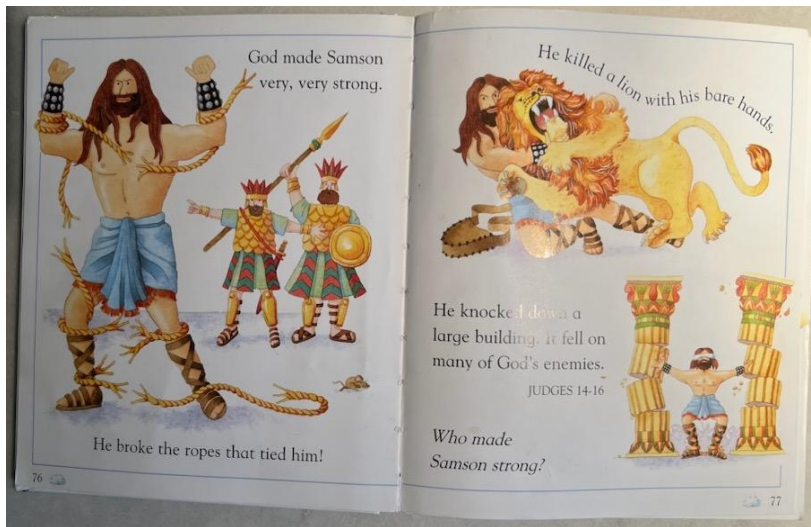

Dave Lomas

John 5:39-40

You study the Scriptures diligently because you think that in them you have eternal life. These are the very Scriptures that testify about me, yet you refuse to come to me to have life.

Hebrews 4:12-13

For the word of God is alive and active. Sharper than any double-edged sword, it penetrates even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow; it judges the thoughts and attitudes of the heart. Nothing in all creation is hidden from God's sight. Everything is uncovered and laid bare before the eyes of him to whom we must give account.

What is the Bible and how do you read it?

“God said it. I believe it. That settles it.”

The best approach to reading the bible is to read it literarily.

Matthew 22:43

He said to them, “How is it then that David, speaking by the Spirit, calls him ‘Lord’? For he says...”

John 5:39-40

You study the Scriptures diligently because you think that in them you have eternal life. These are the very Scriptures that testify about me, yet you refuse to come to me to have life.

Hebrews 4:12-13

For the word of God is alive and active. Sharper than any double-edged sword, it penetrates even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow; it judges the thoughts and attitudes of the heart. Nothing in all creation is hidden from God's sight. Everything is uncovered and laid bare before the eyes of him to whom we must give account.

“To submit oneself to the encounter with Jesus is not to arrive at some iron-clad certainty that solves all of your problems. You don't have to set aside your questions. You only have to stop letting those questions be a defense, an excuse to not take a leap. Because sometimes we want answers to those questions precisely to avoid encountering the Jesus who would rock our world.”

- James K.A. Smith, Encountering Jesus, Encountering Scripture